

Let's make some jelly

Special workshop to raise breast cancer awareness

CORPORATE leaders, fashion designers and celebrities were some of the participants who turned up at the Royal Selangor's "Jelly Good Time", a jelly-making workshop aimed at raising awareness and funds for the Breast Cancer Welfare Association (BCWA), Malaysia.

Clad in pink aprons, familiar faces like Khoon Hooi, Owen Yap, Tunku Ali Muhriz, Khairiy Jamaluddin, Justin Leong, and Charlz Chan made their own jelly creations using Royal Selangor's mountain-inspired conical-shaped jelly mould designed by British designer Nick Munro.

Speaking about Royal Selangor's involvement in supporting the breast cancer cause, the company's general manager of marketing Chen Tien Yue said they had been involved in raising awareness and funds for breast cancer efforts since 2006.

Chefs in pink: Some of the celebrities and personalities who took part in the workshop with their creations.

Chen also added that in conjunction with breast cancer month in October, Royal Selangor would be conducting similar jelly-making workshops throughout the month.

Two workshops will be held for the public on Oct 10 and 24.

At RM200 per person this includes the workshop, a pewter jelly mould as well as afternoon tea at Royal Selangor Visitor Centre's Café. For each person who signs up, Royal Selangor will be contributing RM70 to the association. Those interested can call Royal Selangor at 03-4145 6345 or 4145 6237.